

What Really Matters

My Parents asked if I'm gay,
I said does it matter,
They said not really,
I told them yes I'm gay,
they said get out of our lives,
I guessed it mattered!

My boss said are you gay,
I said does it matter,
my boss said not really,
I told my boss yes I'm gay,
My boss said your fired queer,
I guessed it mattered!

My friend asked if I'm gay,
I said does it matter,
My friend said no not really,
I told my friend yes I'm gay,
My friend said don't call me friend,
I guess it mattered!

My lover said do you love me,
I said does it matter,
My lover said yes,
I told my lover yes I love you,
My lover said hold me in your arms,
For the first time something in my life matters.

God asked, Do you love yourself,
I said does it matter,
God said yes,
I said how can I love myself if I am gay,
God said because that is the way I made you,
Nothing will ever matter again.
